Creating harmony and balance

The timeless beauty of traditional Japanese landscape art is universally resonant. Fictional vistas blend with real-life elements that are rich in symbolism, often conveying fortune, abundance and serenity. As you recreate Mount Fuji, cherry blossoms and a flowing waterfall, we hope that same sense of calm flows into your creative build.

Creative framework

The shadowbox frame is new in LEGO® Art. As you build, layers full of details will enhance the forced perspective and add extra depth to your artwork. Whether standing or hanging, this display will make a striking addition to your home decor.

Imperfection, transience and the fleeting nature of life

This spring landscape captures classic themes in Japanese art – seasonal change, symbolic flora and fauna, and the harmony between nature and human life. Inspired by ukiyo-e artists, we used known shapes and elements in unusual combinations to create new expressions. All carefully composed within a black lacquer-style frame with classic gold motifs.

At its heart stands a snow-capped Mt Fuji, Japan's tallest and most sacred mountain, flanked by Japanese umbrella pines and fiery Sango-kaku maples that bring a sense of peace and longevity.

Set against a glowing sunset, two graceful cranes soar between cliff faces, representing happiness and long life.

In the foreground, blooming Sakura cherry trees – symbols of renewal, beauty and the fleeting nature of life – surround a tranquil lake.

A delicate chashitsu, a ceremonial tea house, rests above the water, reached via an arched bridge.

Cascading waterfalls often represent purity – here, it flows from the cliffs and spills beyond the frame.

Now it's your time to relax, explore and just be in your creative element. Enjoy!
